SOURCE 1

- Easy to spot a building intruder because he is not wearing the same outfit.
- Reduces the economic barrier between the “haves” and the “have nots.”
- Prevents gangs from using colors/clothing to identify themselves.
- Diminishes the social stigma of “cool” versus “uncool” kids because of clothing.

- Fast morning routine; one outfit makes it easy to decide what to wear.
- Eliminates peer pressure among students to have trendy clothes.

SOURCE 3

- Easy to locate students on a field trip because they all are wearing the same thing.
- Provides a sense of belonging since everyone is similarly dressed.
- Decreases in-school fighting/stealing over brand-name clothing.
- Eliminates arguments between parents and children about what is “appropriate” to wear to school.
