

Did Goldilocks commit a crime?

Sort these details to identify the evidence that proves if Goldilocks SHOULD or should NOT be sent to jail.

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Goldilocks. She went for a walk in the forest.

She knocked, and when no one answered, she walked right in.

At the table in the kitchen, there were three bowls of porridge. Goldilocks was hungry.

So, she tasted the last bowl of porridge. "Ahhh, this porridge is just right," she said happily, and she ate it all up.

After she'd eaten the three bears' breakfasts, she decided she was feeling a little tired.

So she tried the last and smallest chair. "Ahhh, this chair is just right," she sighed. But just as she settled down into the chair to rest, it broke into pieces!

Goldilocks was very tired by this time, so she went upstairs to the bedroom.

Then she lay down in the third bed, and it was just right.
Goldilocks fell asleep.

As she was sleeping, the three bears came home.

"Someone's been eating my porridge, and they ate it all up!" cried the baby bear.

Just then, Goldilocks woke up and saw the three bears.

She screamed, "Help!" And she jumped up and ran out of the room.

Goldilocks ran down the stairs, opened the door, and ran away into the forest.
