

Decode the prompt to accurately identify the complex task.

Identify the 3 parts of a prompt.

- BACKGROUND: The first sentences review the different texts read and the broad subject discussed.
- TASK: The middle sentences outline the specific writing task.
- EVIDENCE: The final sentences remind the reader to include textual evidence from the provided sources.

Flavored Milk

Flavored milk is popular with many students, but some people believe that flavored milk should not be served in school cafeterias. After reading “Milk Nutrition” by the Midwest Dairy Association and Jamie Oliver’s video on “Sugar Overload,” write an essay in which you take a position: do you agree or disagree with serving flavored milk in school cafeterias?

Be certain to use information found in the article and video to support your point of view. Use facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, and examples from the article and video to write about the subject knowledgeably. Also, remember to use correct grammar, usage, capitalization, and spelling when writing your essay.
