

EVIDENCE FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE TEXT

Proof: She wanted to fit in so she denied she liked lima beans. Camilla worried about what others thought of her.

Character Web

Book Title A Bad Case of Stripes

Author David Shannon

Character Name Camilla

Character Trait Considerate

EVIDENCE FROM THE MIDDLE OF THE TEXT

Proof: She changed into what others are talking about such as a flag, checkerboard, or medicine.

EVIDENCE FROM THE MIDDLE OF THE TEXT

Proof: Camilla was still afraid to admit that she wanted the lima beans
when offered by the woman because no else liked them.

EVIDENCE FROM THE END OF THE TEXT

Proof: She finally tells the truth and admits that she likes lima beans.
Some kids at school said she was weird, but she didn't care a bit.