Choosing Sides: Food Fight

Kid participating in the food fight

- (Blaming) Someone else started it. I just retaliated.
- (Rationalizing) No one was going to eat that horrible food anyway.
- (Justifying) It wasn't that bad. We were just joking around and having fun.

Kid observing the food fight

- (Fearful) I didn't want to get in trouble for being present when it happened.
- (Irritated) It was messy and someone was going to have to clean it all up—probably the custodian, who didn't even do it.
- (Disgusted) My classmates are so immature. With starving children in the world they are just throwing food away.

Teacher/Principal who stops the fight

- (Angry) Participating students will be severely punished.
- (Worried) Other students were injured as they slipped on food.
- (Annoyed) On top of all my other tasks, I have to call all these kids' parents.

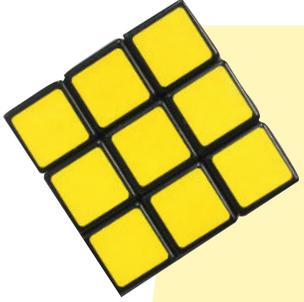

Cooks who prepared the food

- (Disgusted) Those kids are ungrateful for what they have.
- (Unappreciated) Why do I bother cooking food if they are going to throw it.
- (Frustrated) My kitchen and cafeteria are a mess now.
