I rest by day, hidden
high in the shady
branches of a tree.

At night I take flight.
With my wings spread
wide, I silently swoop
to scoop up my prey.

What am I?

The animal is an owl. The text states it “rests by day” and comes out “at night.” The text also states it flies with its “wings spread wide” to “scoop up prey.”

What are they doing?

I blend with the snow
as I roam the ice floes
of the Arctic in search of fat seals.

I have a big, furry
body and large,
powerful paws.

What am I?
